

CELESTIAL SCIENCE

Nostradamus, ensemble words: I. Linders & T. Scherpenzeel

music: T. Scherpenzeel

♩ = 148

N

I was 5

born in the town of Saint Re-my      Raised at my grand fa-thers side      He would teach me

9

La-tin He-brew che-mis-try      No ques-tion was e-ver de - nied      I was 13

told a-bout the cir-cle of life__      Hea-ring how my an-ces-tors ma-naged to sur-vive All a-bout the 17

won-ders of a-stro-lo-gy      When I was a boy

22

Spen-ding nights rea-ding bookson the hea-vens and the earth Then fin-ding out dis co ve-ring the

A C#m B A C#m

25

po-wers of words On-ly time could se-pe-rate oursouls and their se-cret al - li-ance Ce-les-tial

B A C#m B F#

30

scie-nce On mat-ters

B

34

that would real ly in terest me I re ceived a pret-ty good start Much to the con cern of my friends and fa-mi-ly Who thoughtI was try-ing just a lit-tle too hard Though my e-du

B

38

B

42

ca-tion wasn't use-less or wrong But to learn pro-per job I was sent to A vig-non Fara-way from pry-ing eyes in Saint Re-my Where I was a boy Just 51

46

ens.

Spen-ding nights rea-ding bookson the hea-vens and the earth Then fin-ding out dis eo ve ringthe pow-er of words On-ly time would se-pa-rate oursouls and their se-cret al - li-ance Ce-les-tial

54

59

scie- nce

B

63

GUITAR SOLO (theme var.)

E D F#m E A

69

G Bm A F#

76

I re- mem- ber

B

79